- a. On 22 May, [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] met with Capt. James Lucas, USAF and Cmdr. Dwight Worden, USN for approximately one hour. The meeting dealt with OTR comments on a new six weeks management course which DIS plans to initiate in early 1971. Cmdr. Worden mentioned in passing that it was anticipated the new course would develop into the show piece of the various courses DIS gives. In an earlier meeting with Capt. Lucas (see Weekly Report dated 16 April 1970) the plan for the course had been left with MTF for comment. The OTR group made a number of informal suggestions concerning methodology, subject matter and times allotted, which were well received and seemed in line with DIS thinking and progress in the interim between the draft OTR was given and the present. As the course will be modified somewhat based on feedback from potential customers, the intent at present is to redo the course for comment at a later point.

- b. On 26 May, C/SUS and [REDACTED] reviewed a number of films at BNA films in Rockville. Several were felt to be of value in current and planned management

- a. During the past week MEDC #24 heard presentations by a strong DDS team. For the first time the talks on OTR and OMS were presented in Seminars by Messrs. [REDACTED] and Tietjen. On the last evening at [REDACTED] the Executive Director-Comptroller had an effective informal discussion with the class. ✓ unless
- b. At Headquarters the class heard from remaining offices of the Agency, i. e., Art Lundahl and John Clarke. The midcareerists also had one full day on the Intelligence Community - a morning visit to NSA and afternoon talks on DIA and INR by Lt. Gen. Jammie Philpott, Deputy Director of DIA and David Mark, Deputy Director for Research of INR.
- c. An informal class party was held on 26 May in the Executive Dining Room with Mr. Gordon Stewart as a guest. Twenty-nine were present. 25X1A9a
